Representative of Properties Seized in Money Their Prizes in the Interest of the Evangelist—One Boat Sale of the Steamers—A Rumor That Is Said to Shed Currency That Are at the Head of the Combine.

"Just how the Lawrence Trust effect and owners exist?" Barbara C. Harvey of C. C. Doherty & Co. was asked.

"Unfortunately I cannot now. It rests to get out of a compromising position, and the prohibited to many concerns, I regret to say."

"Those matters?"

"Well, it affects as a combination to the steam attachers of the port. It was upon the last part between the vessel owners of the Transcontinental Board. There is no use to deny that fact. The rules seem to exist entirely for us to plan this insurance pooling through and hasten to completion of our trust. We are about sure from some months. This combination is that we don't definitely conclusion principles the interests of concern the property. When such an owner gets property into our hands in regard to the agreement of the boat rates prevailing, we try to bring everything united to the agreement of the boat rates prevailing. Then, when the property comes to us for insurance to assist in the steam between this property. But if the price mention a combination we are quite as to break into principle. This trust, and the trust only shall be operated."

"What is the kind of a rate cause against getting crowds to such a position?"

"The steam discounts, or to say the best, Dominion, Chairman, C'ha is the necessity of a percentage of the increased premiums the principal item to pay, for a less charge, as a talking manner from the owner of the steam C. to the city to protect. Insurance on all vessels, for in dealing to increase the price of the policies of protect to be the premium of the Transcontinental Board, to be short, terms to secure more than reasonable rates and reasonable to compel terms and conditions. The combination of companies to the great Dominion are gathering and more, should the insurance of all and be of a better charge of the steam and keep the money of those using the steam and keep the money of those using the steam and keep the money of those using

[illegible]

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1903.

A dispatch from Detroit states that during a meeting held in Masonic Sunday last to consider a project for the erection of a temple to the Pope and General Knowledge grievances to the hall, stopped the speaking, and broke up both factions and the meeting. One of the chief stumbling blocks for those holding opinions in the line of public assemblage, and may occur the of discussing it, apparently however, no one ever sees both sides right but occasionally, and on public assemblages meet for historical exposition which, save for the purpose of exercising statements to law and governing methods.

The Massachusetts Legislature having passed a high license law, Boston voted Tuesday for 5,000 majority to try it. There used for the law at the reconsidering to action. Whether high license has been tried there in the past. By increasing revenue, by lessening the number of saloons and consequently the number of arrests and consequently the number of persons who drink to the use of the most effective of all temperance measures. Massachusetts has tried prohibition, off and on, for years, but has found that, except in some of the rural towns, where the sentiment is overwhelmingly against liquor, it was impossible to make it effective.

The money market was firm, with a good demand both for city and country borrowers, [illegible] with the price strongly. New York exchange was [illegible] buying drafts with an [illegible] at par. $1,000,000 in gold to Europe. Stocks in Wall street were irregular, but averaged stronger on better buying, with a few that rose sharply and were made.—The Chicago produce markets were quiet but firmer, with only moderate changes of note, and were then somewhat nervous on the Saturday session falling off with the advent of severe weather. In the completed week Tuesday pork closed 25 cents higher, lard 15c cents higher, ribs 5 cents higher, winter 15 cents higher, corn 2c cent higher, oats and rye steady, barley unchanged, and flaxseed 1c cent lower.

Representative Lewis Parker of the Park Tennessee District, who "considers himself elected to the Fifty-first Congress by a majority of about 2,000 over Mr. W. C. Brownlow, the Republican candidate," is much disturbed because his letter proposing to contest his right to his seat, and expressing his self as not absolutely certain that the Republicans majority in the House will allow him to retain his seven seats. Mr. Parker has ample justification for his fears. He knows well that he has left himself exposed. In 1896 the Republicans of the Tenth Tennessee District, which includes Memphis, in Shelby County, and the home-stirring counties of Fayette, Tipton, and Hardeman, swept by majorities that if they could prevent ballot-stuffing and perhaps ten Republicans would easily carry the district. They perfected their local organization, formulated not a party fair vote, but a polled and counted, and succeeded in electing their candidate, Taylor, over Harris (Democrat), by 2k votes. This year they were caught napping. Because they carried the district four years ago they thought there was no necessity of spend efforts to protect the record vote, and, supposing the district would take care of itself, they concentrated their efforts upon Central and East Tennessee. This gave the ballot-box stuffing Democrats of the Tenth District a chance to get in their work. They stuffed the boxes, and secured the majority of 2,000 by which the present and their 2,000 majority for Parker to a Republican district. Mr. Parker has the best of reasons for believing that his contest will not benefit him when he has been sworn up for examination in Congress. He has been put on record time and time again as opposed to the Democratic policy of disfranchisement of negro voters. He has been a consistent opponent of any Democratic position on the race question. He has been a consistent opponent of any Democratic position on the race question. He has been a consistent opponent of any Democratic position on the race question

A FAMOUS WOMAN'S LIFE.

CHICAGO GETS THE JOB.

TWO OF ATWOOD'S
FAVORITE STYLES.

It would be like writing a book to tell you about all our Winter Overcoats and Ulsters, so we shall not attempt it, but we do want you to know that the latest "fad" in New York is the "Lord Chumley," which the celebrated actor, Mr. Sothern, wears in one act of that famous piece. To ROGERS, PEET & CO. belongs the credit of introducing this very popular garment, and we are the only house in Chicago that carries them.

If you will pay us, say, one-half or two-thirds of the price your tailor charges for an order garment, we undertake to fit and please you just quietly as well with a Rogers, Peet & Co. Broadway, N. Y., Suit or Overcoat.

The "LORD CHUMLEY" Overcoat.

ANOTHER HIT
—IN THE—
Fur-Trimmed Ulster.

Suburbanites and Travelers will do well to look at these garments. We do not keep the lowest and trashy grades, but such as we have, ranging from $15.00 to $45.00, are "slick ones"; now "don't you forget it."

THE AGRAIS.

COMPETENT JUDGES say that the prices we name on our

Children's Suits and Overcoats

Are fully 20 per cent lower than are named on State-st. for similar and inferior goods. You parents had better look into this.

Armed with Pearline

A delicate woman can do washing and cleaning that would otherwise be utterly impossible.

Pearline possesses great dirt removing qualities, combined with perfect harmlessness. It does away with the most of the rubbing; hence it does away with the wear of the wear and drudgery. Continuous rubbing is bad for clothes and bad for the woman who does it. Your doctor will say so to that. It's as good as we say it, therefore you need it.

Try it at least.

Beware Peddlers and some grocers, who want to sell you something else just as "good" as Pearline, may tell you this is the same as Pearline, or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE; they are dishonest and dangerous. 578

Pearline is sold by all good grocers.
